

To whom it may concern:

With Young children in the house, I am often appalled at the commercials and shows on tv today before (and during!) prime time. The FCC needs to be more strict, not less. What we see affects how we think and treat others.

Please do not loosen the current standards. I stand in support of proceeding 13-86.4

Sincerely,

Nadine Weisbrod